ALL MINES PLACED IN POSITION.

All the Vessels of the Fleet Except One Left Rockland For the Attack on Portland.

The Ships Made a Long Curve Extending Toward Camden and Out to Owl's Head, Commanded By Rr. Adm. Barker.

Portland, Me., Aug. 25.—So far as the defending forces are concerned, the war maneuvers have developed nothing Monday night but a watching and waiting game.

Almost all the mines have been placed in position Monday and Tuesday evening every one will be in perfect working order. A coast patrol was established Monday night. The defenders rested on their arms Monday night.

Rockland, Me., Aug. 25.—All the battleships, cruisers and other vessels of the combined North Atlantic fleet, except the collier Marcellus, had left the harbor Monday night for the attack on Portland. The preparations for departure began early in the morning and at 3 p. m. the signals were set on the flagship Kearsarge for the ships to assume their positions for sailing. Besides the Maine naval reserve there arrived in town Monday the judges and military referees who will watch the movements, demonstrations, attacks, etc.

Rr. Adm. Wise, with the Yankee, the Panther and the Essex, was the first to leave the anchorage off the breakwater. He was followed by Adm. Sands, with the smaller vessels, and Adm. Cogland, with the cruisers.

The ships made a long curve extending toward Camden, and out to Owl's Head and overtook the head of the line. With the flagship Kearsarge were the Illinois and the Alabama.

The battleships were followed closely by the tugs Nina and Peoria and the colliers Caesar and Sterling. The torpedo boat destroyers were the last to anchor ground.

The Whipple remained until 4:50 to take the late afternoon mail.

Of the 2,000 sailors on shore leave Sunday about 25 were left behind.

TURKS' ATROCITIES

General Situation in Macedonia is Considered at Sofia as Becoming Intolerable.

OUTLOOK IS EXCEEDINGLY SERIOUS

Mutilated Corpses of 90 Women and Children Were Found in One Building at Kroshevo.

Fifteen of the Principal Merchants of Monastir Killed and Their Heads Exhibited on Poles—Other Outrages Committed.

Sofia, Aug. 25.—With the rumors of massacres and the murder of prisoners in Monastir now authenticated, the general situation is considered here as fast becoming intolerable. Official and diplomatic circles alike are concerned, having every reason to fear that only a part of the horrors, enacted in the interior of Macedonia, have come to light as yet.

The revolutionary committee are doing their utmost to force the hands of the Bulgarian government and the immediate outlook is exceedingly serious.

It appears that the Turks have obtained the upper hand in the vilayet of Monastir and the insurgents are planning to remove the center of their activity close to the Bulgarian frontiers. Dispatches arriving Monday from the disturbed area are exceedingly gloomy. From Adrianople comes the news of a Turkish defeat and the extension of the revolutionary outbreak; from Monastir, the news of Turkish victories accompanied by barbarous excess.

While many of the reports remain without confirmation, sufficient authentic details are forthcoming to cause the authorities the gravest anxiety. According to the Sofia Dnevnik the Turks committed unspeakable atrocities at Krushevo.

The mutilated corpses of 90 women and children were found in one building; pieces of the bodies had been thrown into the street. Fifteen of the principal merchants of the town were killed and their heads exhibited on poles at Monastir.

At Monastir the churches were demolished, the houses sacked and the town is now in a heap of ashes. The populace fled to the hills, where they are in a starving condition.

The Dnevnik also asserts that a general massacre has taken place in the whole vilayet of Monastir. Nearly all the villages have been destroyed. The treacherous murder of 80 insurgent prisoners by their guards near Monastir has made an especially bad impression here.

Many rumors are current of massacres in the city of Adrianople but confirmation is lacking. The situation there, however, undoubtedly is serious. The population is afraid to leave the houses. The prisons are full and the vali has taken private houses to be used as jails. When the Russian consul protested at the situation, the vali is reported to have answered that he was powerless against the fanatical population.

BIG FIRE IN BUDAPEST.

One Hundred and Twenty Persons Perished in the Flames.

Buda Pest, Hungary, Aug. 25.—Fire Monday evening in a four-story building, the lower stores of which were occupied by a fancy goods firm, and the upper floors by flats, cut off the escape of many of the 200 work people and of the residents on the third and fourth floors. Only the work people near the doors were able to escape. The residents above, seeing their escape cut off, clung desperately to the windows, screaming for help. The firemen held out sheets of canvas and called to them to jump. Fifteen persons were saved in this way but many missed the sheet, 13 being killed on the spot, including two children. Eight persons were mortally and nine were seriously injured.

It is known that 120 people perished in the flames. The damage is estimated at 4,000,000 kronen, mostly covered by insurance.

Italian Consul Insulted.

Rome, Aug. 25.—The porte has promised the Italian government satisfaction and the punishment of the Turkish soldiers who were guilty of insulting Count Devisart, the Italian consul at Monastir, by calling him a "Giaour." #### WANT JETT TO CONFESS.

Relations Will Plead With Him Tuesday to Tell What He Knows.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 25.—Influence is being brought to bear on Curtis Jett, the condemned murderer of Attorney J. B. Marcum, to get him to confess to the murder and give the names of those who are responsible for his death. Jett has recently received a letter from an uncle living in Tennessee urging him to make a full confession and let the people who are really behind the assassinations suffer for the crime. Jett has given no signs of weakening since his conviction and will not discuss his trial or conviction only to say that he is not guilty of the murder of Marcum.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 25.—Relatives of Jett will be here Tuesday, it is believed, to secure a confession if possible from him. Jett's mother visited him in his cell Monday afternoon and gave him a new suit of clothes.

NEW WITNESSES.

Prosecution in the Powers Case Has About 30 More to Examine.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 25.—About 30 new witnesses were recognized and sworn on the convening of court in the Powers trial Monday, and it looks as if the case will not close and the arguments begin before Thursday. The new commonwealth witnesses are to be used in rebuttal of the testimony of Jim Howard, W. H. Lilly and others, and to prove the character of the defense witness, Max Lewis, of Louisville.

The Powers jury returned from Frankfort at 6 o'clock Monday evening and court was immediately adjourned for the day. The defense will present its final witnesses before noon Tuesday. Rebuttal testimony of the commonwealth will occupy the rest of the day and argument to the jury will be begun Wednesday.

THE COURT DUCKED.

A Prisoner Struck at Judge Stirman With a Chair.

Owensboro, Ky., Aug. 25.—Robert Harmon, a prisoner in the city court, assaulted Judge J. S. Stirman while the latter was on the bench Monday. Harmon had been fined, and while sentence was being passed Harmon seized a chair and brought it down with all his strength. The honorable court ducked, and the chair struck the box in which he sat. Three police officers overpowered Harmon, and he was sent to the dungeon for 36 hours.

Additional Personal.

—Miss Louie Bruer, of Paris, is here visiting friends.

—Mrs. Lunceford Talbott and daughter, Mason, of Paris, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Worthington, of Fern Leaf.

DECISION AS TO INSURANCE.

Opinion of Appellate Court in the Case of Gardner Against the Continental.

In reversing the above case, taken up from this county, the Court of Appeals says:

A held a mortgage for $1,800 on land owned by B, containing 100 acres, on which he and his family resided. B made a deed to C, conveying to him said land, except the homestead; C agreed to assume and pay the mortgage debt; appellee company issued to C a policy of fire insurance on the buildings for $1,700. This action was brought by said company to enforce so much of said mortgage as amounted to $1,612.50, which had been assigned to it by A. In his answer alleged that this amount had been paid him by the insurance company on a loss under said policy, which had been made payable to him, and in accordance with the terms of the loss clause in said deed he had assigned his claim to said company. C in his answer alleged that the loss clause, which was added to said policy, was to the effect that in the event of loss and the payment of it by the company, it should be subrogated to the rights of the mortgagee, and he would thereby forfeit his right to have credit on the mortgage debt for the amount of his insurance, was inserted by mistake, and that he did not discover said mistake until after the fire, and asked that the mistake be corrected, so as to give him credit for the amount paid A. on the loss.

The policy with the mortgage clause was filed with the answer of C, but was not copied in the record on appeal. The court sustained a demur to the answer of Gardner, and a judgment was entered in favor of the insurance company and A., foreclosing the mortgage on the land.

On appeal it is insisted that the ruling of the lower court on the demur should be sustained in the absence of an exhibit.

Held.—The rule is that an exhibit will not cure a defective pleading, or supply averments omitted in the pleading. But it is also the rule that in a suit on a written contract, if the contract shows that no cause of action exists, the court on demur will consider the exhibit. In other words, while an exhibit cannot make a pleading good, it may make it bad. The exhibit will be considered for another reason: the record on a former appeal is filed with this record, and was considered as a part of it by the parties in briefing the case, and, while it might have been stricken out on motion, this objection will be considered as waived. The court should have overruled the demur to the answer of C. Under the facts alleged in the answer, the payment of the loss by the insurance company to A. extinguished the mortgage to this exhibit, and no recovery can now be had in favor of the company.

Usury.—The judgment in favor of A. should be purged of usury.

A. E. Cole & Son for appellants; Thos. R. Phister, E. L. Worthington, W. D. Cochran for appellees.

PITHY POINTS.

It's not improbable that Henry Youtsey considers W. S. Taylor the boss liar.

One thing's certain, it wasn't a lie that got Henry Youtsey his place in the penitentiary.

Taylor seems to be still of the opinion that he can make a better showing of his innocence at Indianapolis than at Frankfort.

Youtsey is well aware his case can't be helped by lying, while Taylor is in a position to be benefited by all the lies he can disseminate.

There's nothing for Youtsey to gain by lying, while Taylor has everything to gain and no chance to lose, by this his favorite pastime.

About the only solution of the "race question" that Northern people appear to entertain these times is to have colored people race out of their towns and cities.

It will do very well for Taylor to proclaim his innocence and that of the rest of the accused from Indianapolis, but let him come to Kentucky and try this, and he will see for how little it will count.

Linens That Are Linens

A fuzzy table cloth takes away the appetite, a liny towel destroys half the pleasure of the bath. Yet many people buy part cotton "linens" for economy reasons. How much better to take advantage of such prices as follow and get absolutely pure linens at prices other ask for cotton mixed.

TABLE LINEN—Two splendid values at 50c. Old fashioned loom dice table linen, heavy, strong, long wearing, 64 in wide, handsome new designs. A good bleached Irish damask for 50c. It is hard to find—but it is here.

NAPKINS—Every thread pure linen, silver bleached, good German damask, $1.25 doz.

TOWELS—Huck Towels of sturdy Scotch make, hemmed ends, washed ready for use, three popular sizes, 10c., 15c., 19c.

TOWELING—Twilled Crash, red or blue border, fall 15 in wide, very serviceable quality, 8¢c. yard.

Our Way of Doing With Carpets.

Before the carpet season fully opens we decide on the patterns we will discontinue and we sell what is left of them that we may start the carpet business with entirely new designs. As our moving time approaches we are especially anxious to hurry out carpets.

The Time Has Come.

About 500 yds. of the various patterns are to be sold now to get them out of the way. The qualities are just as good as the mills will ever make and the patterns are all attractive—no freaks among them.

It's this way—

The $1.25 Wiltons and Axminster for 89c.

The 90c. Roxbury and Stinson Brussels for 75c.

The 75c. Smith Brussels for 65c.

THEM FALL SKIRTS

• HAVE ARRIVED •

Grammatically wrong is this sentence, but flawless are these skirts. They fit. They hang gracefully. They are pretty. They are stylish. They are made right. They look right. They are right. And you will be right in fashion if you wear a Bee Hive Walking Skirt. A large stock from which to make a selection. Prices as usual. No wonder our clerks smiled when they saw these skirts, for they well know with such a line it will be easy selling for them this fall.

P. S.—Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday are remnant days.

THORNTON NORRIS.

Death Claims an Old and Highly Respected Citizen of Germantown Neighborhood.

The venerable Thornton Norris died Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at his home near Germantown, after an illness of several weeks.

Mr. Norris was in the eighty-eighth year of his age, having been born Oct. 25th, 1815. He belonged to one of the most prominent and highly respected families of that section. His wife survives him.

The funeral takes place Wednesday at 11 a.m. at Germantown Christian Church. Interment at that place.

Death of Joseph Doniphian Felix.

Joseph Doniphian Felix, a young lawyer who was widely known throughout Kentucky and who was formerly Private Secretary to Governor Beckham, died Monday. He was brought to his home at Louisville from Asheville, N. C., Friday, and on that day made all arrangements for the funeral himself. He was born at Augusta, and was a son of a well known Baptist minister and a nephew of Judge George Doniphian, of that city. He was at the time of his death a Colonel on the Governor's staff.

C. and O. freight No. 95, a double-header, with orders to meet Nos. 72 and 90, the latter a double-header, at Glenn, Lewis County, early Monday, met No. 72 and then started west before No. 90 arrived, and collided with the train. All four of the engines were badly damaged. R. B. Lewis, one of the engineers of No. 90, was caught in his engine and had one of his feet mashed off. Other trainmen escaped with slight injuries by jumping. Lewis was taken to Portsmouth. No. 1 was delayed until after 10 o'clock.

John Jones was in Squire Grant's court Monday on charge of breach of the peace and was fined $10 and costs—$15 75. Jones had tried to smash things at the home of relatives in the West End.

Rev. R. H. Dodson and daughter, of Georgetown, O., were in town Sunday, the guests of Mrs. J. W. Clinger of the Sixth ward. His wife recently died and he has since then been with relatives at Millersburg and Mt. Sterling. He was formerly one of the school examiners for this county. Mr. Dodson gave a short but impressive and very instructive talk at the communion service at the Christian Church Sunday morning.

THIEF GOT SCARED,

And Returned the Stolen Property—More Good Work by the Bloodhounds.

Sunday night a thief visited a barn at the home of the Manion brothers on what is known as the Dr. Wall farm, south of Washington, and stole a set of harness. Monday, Mr. N. Gollenstein took the bloodhounds to the scene. So many cattle had tramped about the building that the dogs had some difficulty in following the trail, but finally took it up some distance from the barn. At this point, the tracks of a horse were discovered, and Mr. Gollenstein found a silver quarter the rider had lost, in mounting or dismounting. The dogs followed the trail to a negro cabin on the Duray farm, further south, but the occupant of the cabin had gone to Mayfield, and no further effort was made.

This morning the Messrs. Manion telephoned Mr. Gollenstein that the stolen harness was returned last night,—pretty conclusive evidence that the dogs were on the right trail.

KNOCKED FROM TRAIN.

A Brakeman on C. and O. Freight Had Narrow Escape at Bridge Street Monday Afternoon.

O. F. Cummings, a brakeman on C. and O. freight No. 75, westbound, had a narrow escape from serious injury Monday afternoon as the train was passing so low that it caught Mr. Cummings, who was standing on top of a box car, and he was pulled from the car and fell to the street. One of his cheek bones was fractured, which is thought to be the extent of his injuries.

Mr. Cummings saw the wire, but too late to avoid being caught by it. Dr. Reed dressed his injuries, and he was then sent to his home at 339 West Eleventh street, Covington.

Rev. E. L. Powell and wife have returned from their trip abroad and are now in Virginia before returning to Louisville.

Mrs. Charles Ham, of Washington, who has been seriously ill some time, was reported in very critical condition this morning.

Miss Kate Porter, aged twelve years, and her sister, Ada, aged fifteen, both received premiums at the Elks fair for water color painting and drawings in pencil.

The Government steamer E. A. Woodruff began wrecking the two ice piers at Ripley Monday. The stone in the piers will be taken to Eight Mile, above Cincinnati, where they will be used in constructing a dike.

Frank Duke Little, aged six years, died Sunday evening, of scarlet fever, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Little, on East Second street. He was an unusually bright child, and his decease leaves sad, almost inconsolable hearts in the household of which he was a loved member. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of all in this sorrow. The interment took place Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in the Maysville Cemetery.

A few months ago, Clarence Sexton, a ten-year-old boy, was standing near the C. and O. track just above South Portsmouth, while a freight train was passing, when a hobo on the train reached out and caught the boy by the arm, throwing him under the wheels. A part of one foot was taken off. The boy as soon as he recovered from the shock, stated that the trainmen were not to blame, that it was a hobo. While the company was not liable for damages, they admired the honesty of the boy, and paid him $150 anyhow.

There is talk at Lexington of preferring charges against Major Nelson Edwards, of the Covington Company of State Guards, for not accompanying his battalion to Lexington the day the Covington and New Castle companies arrived there on their way home from Jackson, and several members of the Covington company became so disorderly. Friends of the officers who were fined by the court-martial Friday contend that if it was a breach of military discipline for the subordinate officers not to accompany their companies home, then it was a breach of military discipline for the commanding officer of the battalion not to do so.

In a few days the youngsters will go back to their school or college. As a matter of course they will need an outfit. You that had experience are fully aware that you do not as a rule find the kind of clothing we sell in the average clothing stores.

Our entire fall stock is in. Before your boys start to school bring them in.

With us they can choose from the productions of the famous manufacturers, Stein, Bloch Co., L. Adler Bros. and Co., Garson Meyer Co., three of the greatest concerns in Rochester, New York. The majority of the "boys" know these makers and want them.

Our trade on these lines has grown to such proportion that the qualities we buy and sell of them enables us to sell them for no more than you would have to pay for much lesser qualities in other houses. You do yourselves justice to look over our lines before you buy.

THE MARKETS.

Review of Trade in Live Stock and Tobacco at Cincinnati the Past Week.

Cattle—The market started rather strong, but weakened under fair supplies of ordinary quality. Shipping steers average about 25c less than a week ago, and butcher steers at $3.75@4.75 are 15@35c lower; heifers at $3.65@4.15 are 10@15c lower, butchers cows at $3@3.75 are about 25c lower, stockers at $2.25@4.10 are 10@15c lower, and bulls at $2.50@3.50 are about 15@25c lower than a week ago. The market at present is quiet.

Hogs—Receipts have been fairly liberal, but the demand was active most of the time, and packers and butchers at $1.65@2.80 are about 10c higher for the week. Light weights are about the same, and pigs not quite so firm.

Sheep—Sheep have been steady, with no material change in price, the bulk going at $2.75@3.35. Best lambs at $6 are about 30c less than a week ago, but the average is about the same as a week ago.

Tobacco—The week was one of the lightest on the breaks this year, the total offerings for the three days' sales amounting to only 637 hds. But for all that the market sustained prices pretty thoroughly, although rejections were a little heavier than usual.

The principal feature of the week's offerings were the number of lower grade hds. put up. The shippers offered these types for foreign trade freely.

The A. O. U. W. will meet this evening at Nelson's at 7:30 o'clock. All members are requested to be present. Business of importance.

A CITIZEN DISCUSSES

A Vital Question—Fraught With Interest to Maysville People.

When a citizen right here at home makes a public statement like the following, all room for doubt disappears and the most skeptical must be convinced. It's pretty hard for our readers to prove a statement made by a stranger living in some far-away point of the union, but the endorsement of neighbors, friends and citizens is the best of proof; no better evidence can be had:

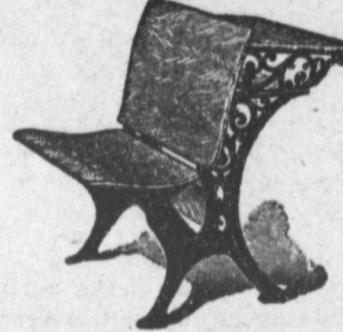

Mr. P. Gantley, grocer of 314 East Fourth street, says: "The prompt and thorough relief from backache given by Doan's Kidney Pills is the strongest endorsement possible. When backache is caused by the lack of proper action of the kidneys the only reason for continuing to suffer is the want of knowledge of Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, West Second and Market streets."
